Gospel Reflection - The Most Holy Trinity

In my experience, one of the peculiarities of being a man is the somewhat unlikely ability to look into the mirror, no matter how out of shape he may be, and declare with full confidence: "Looking good, buddy!" Ask a man. He'll probably confirm it.

Therein lies a mystery. You might think I refer to man's ability to deceive himself or his propensity toward vainglory. But in this case, I refer to the mystery of a healthy and proper sense of self-love. We human beings (both men and women) have the utterly weird ability to look at ourselves as if we were another. Then we tend to love this "other." Then, somehow, that love becomes a bond between the two. We are three and yet one.

June 4 is Trinity Sunday. We ponder anew that God in His unity is a play of multiplicity: Lover, Beloved, and shared Love. Or, as we also proclaim, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If we allow it, this mystery heals our temptation toward self-hatred and destruction. We all know how awful it is to look into the mirror and not know the person we see, or, equally bad, to know and hate who we see. Jesus, the Son of God, draws us into the dynamics of authentic self-knowledge and self-love. Perhaps we could ask the Holy Trinity this Sunday to teach us to truly look at ourselves and to properly love who we see looking back.

Notice of Office Changes

Due to the Diocese change from our current parishioner database to the new engagement software ParishStaq, which includes PushPay (offers using credit cards to make donations or payments), there will be several office closures to aid in the volume of work required for the change over. The parish office will be closed to the public Monday, June 12, Tuesday June 13, and Thursday June 15 and the week of June 19-23. We apologize for any inconvenience.

During this time of transition we will also be combining some weekly bulletins into a 2 week format. The May 28 and June 4 bulletin will be combined into one. The printed bulletin will still be available at all Masses on those weekends.

ACA Update! Look for your letter from Archbishop Etienne

Archbishop is grateful for all the gifts you share with our parish and our diocese. This week he is sending out a letter to those still considering their gift to the ACA campaign. He is inviting you to participate in supporting our own local Catholic community through your gift. The funds pledged will support many archdiocesan-wide ministries including mental health, faith formation and CYO camps---where each summer thousands of children learn respect and dignity for themselves, others and the environment---all through Catholic teachings. Please take time to consider Archbishop Etienne's enclosed note. Please make your pledge using the QR code, or the pew envelope which may be mailed or included in the collection.
