August 14th, the Eve of the Immaculate Conception, is the feast of St. Maximilian Kolbe. Long devoted to the Blessed Virgin, as a young man, he “prayed very hard to Our Lady to tell me what would happen to me. She appeared, holding in her hands two crowns, one white, one red. She asked if I would like to have them—one was for purity, the other for martyrdom. I said, ‘I choose both.’ She smiled and disappeared.” St Maximilian is the Polish Franciscan priest who is best known for offering his life in Auschwitz, in place of a family man who was condemned to death in the starvation bunker.

If angels could be jealous of men, they would be so for one reason: Holy Communion. ~St. Maximilian Kolbe

Tips & Etiquette

Please turn off (or set to "do not disturb") all cell phones prior to entering the Church. Or, err on the side of caution, and leave them in your car!

Pray for Vocations

Lord Jesus, Please grant to me the grace to know my true vocation. In Baptism I was signed in Your name and have grown to share in the work of bringing Your Father's love to our world. May I respond to the special life's work to which You are calling me. I ask that many will hear the particular call to serve in the Church as priests, religious, and consecrated lay people. To whatever You ask of me, may I freely, courageously and lovingly respond. Amen.

We Pray for Our Family

Parish Job Opening

St Augustine Catholic Church is seeking to hire an accompanist (piano and/or organ) to provide music for parish liturgies and other designated celebrations. The position would collaborate with the Pastor or other assigned consultive body. The candidate will need to audition for the Pastor. The position is a year-round position up to ten hours per week. Successful candidates should be registered to a Catholic parish and be an active participant in Catholic worship and parish life. The complete job description and application packet are available on our website www.staugustineoh.org or by sending a request to admin@staugustineoh.org

When people whisper, what they whisper usually is not flattering. It's also usually not accurate. If it was either of these things, it probably wouldn't have to be whispered.

"Stop murmuring among yourselves," Jesus tells the community in today's Gospel, and I think I detect a hint of impatience in his voice — or is that just my own bias? Maybe, maybe not. But it's true that what they were whispering about wasn't particularly flattering, and it also wasn't very accurate: Did you hear what he said? That he's the bread of life?

Do they disbelieve, or are they simply confused? Resentful? Afraid? Overwhelmed? We don't know, but we do know that they're not bringing their questions into the open. They're whispering them, trading them secretly, like contraband candy. We know this guy. Who does he think he is? Well, if you ask me...

And then we get to what is usually the true purpose of a whispered opinion: the desire to make oneself out as the correct and unchallenged judge of the matter at hand.

In many ways, we have become a Church of murmurers. Did you see what Bishop So-and-So said to Such-and-Such newspaper? Did you hear what Fr. Whatshisname said in his homily? Who does he think he is? Well, if you ask me...

Perhaps it was always this way, even before modern times. Perhaps this Gospel shows us that this is no new thing.

Today, we see Jesus respond to his sulking critics by drawing their attention back to the truth at the heart of his teaching. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. And that is the end of their murmuring.

The truth is like a brick wall, and it knocks them over - or rather they, hurling themselves against it, knock themselves over. "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever." — John 6:51
