Tips and Etiquette

- ⌘ October is the Month of the Rosary
- ⌘ The Rosary is a direct line to the Blessed Virgin Mary!
- ⌘ Tradition holds that Mary gave the Rosary to Saint Dominic on the 13th century
- ⌘ The word “rosary” comes from the Latin rosarium which means “garland of roses”
- ⌘ The Rosary is a great way to focus before Mass or calm your mind before falling asleep (there isn’t really a wrong way to say the Rosary)
- ⌘ We have Rosaries and Rosary guides in the parish office (for free!)

I am embarrassed to admit that I frequently find myself dining and socializing with people who have millions and sometimes billions of dollars. I've eaten more caviar, lobster and wagyu steak than most people on the planet. I justify it by saying it's part of my job. But I have seven pairs of nice jeans and expensive shoes.

So it is rather uncomfortable to hear Our Lord say: "My child, remember that you received what was good in your lifetime, while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented" (Luke 16:25). Fellow rich people (and if you're American, you're rich), do we not vehemently though quietly object to this parable's karma-esque reward system? Why bless the rich man just to curse him later? And curse Lazarus just to bless him later? So Americans go to hell, while Burundians and Afghans go to heaven? What is going on?

One clue is that the condemned rich man doesn't complain of injustice. Rather, he simply begs to help his brothers to repent. Of what? We don't know exactly. Perhaps another clue is that the rich man now seems more like the downtrodden Lazarus. He knows what it is to be hungry and thirsty, to be wounded in the gutter; that he deserved that, not fancy meals and clothes. Maybe the rich man finally understands how to receive true blessings, but it is too late for him. But not for me. Not for us.
