Prayer for Vocations

O Lord, our ever-present Shepherd,
You dwell among us whenever two or three gather in Your name.
Plant in our hearts a deep desire for vocations
to the priesthood, religious life,
and holy marriage.
Give us courage to seek reconciliation and to walk the path You set before us.
Guide us with faithful and willing hearts.
Fill us with zeal to serve Your people, purity to reflect Your love, and humility to seek only Your will.
May we answer Your call with generous hearts, lead others closer to You, and find lasting joy in serving Your Church.
Amen. †

Tips & Etiquette

The baptismal font located in the rear of the nave holds blessed water and stands as a living reminder of our Baptism.

This water is for blessing, not for washing hands or casual use. Treat the font with the same reverence you give the rest of the sacred space. A simple Sign of the Cross is enough. Children may be helped to do the same so they learn this beautiful Catholic custom from an early age.

As you bless yourself, you may quietly pray:
"In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

Forgive, Gather, and Rejoice Together

A few summers ago, my family had a big reunion. It included my parents, my four siblings, and all their many children. One of my favorite moments was simply watching my parents' contented faces as they took in all of us together, laughing, sharing food, singing, telling stories. They loved seeing their children happily together with each other.

That is something like the heart of God we see in today's Gospel message about Christian reconciliation. These verses come right after Jesus' parable of the lost sheep. He is not giving the disciples a cold formula for dealing with conflict. He is revealing the Father's longing for children who love and reconcile with each other. His heart aches when his children are divided and isolated.

So when Jesus says, "Go and tell your brother his fault," He is not deputizing us as morality police. He is inviting us into his mission of reconciliation. When he adds, "If he listens to you, you have won over your brother," we glimpse the real goal. Not winning arguments, but reuniting a divided family.

These days, we often think religion is just between God and me. But the Father's dream is about a lively family, one in which His children forgive, gather, and rejoice together.

Lord Jesus, give me the courage to seek reconciliation where it is needed. Make my heart resemble the Father's heart, longing and working for unity among His children. Amen.

— Father John Muir
