Please remain "prayerfully silent" throughout your time in church. Refrain from unnecessary talking as it distracts others who are intently praying and reflecting.

Pray for Vocations

O God, who chose the apostles to make disciples of all nations and who, by Baptism and Confirmation, have called us to build up your Holy Church, we earnestly implore you to choose among us, your children, many priests and religious who will love you with their whole hearts and will gladly spend their entire lives making you known and loved by all. Through Christ Our Lord. ~Amen

The Priesthood and the Eucharist

"These two Sacraments were born together," wrote St. John Paul II of the priesthood and the Eucharist, "and their destiny is indissolubly linked until the end of the world." The Eucharist is such a beautiful example of how God, conscious of our limitations, bends to meet us. He once came to us cloaked in the flesh, that we might recognize Him. Now He comes as the very means by which we nourish ourselves: food and drink, the most familiar and comforting thing in the world to us. How easy He makes it to fulfill his command that we become one with Him. How generous He is to make such a sacred thing also accessible. We can say the same of the priesthood, and of the men He calls to its number. How generous of Him to make such an accessible thing — our sons, our brothers, our uncles, our cousins — sacred. How generous of Him to allow these human creations — who share in our own faults — to be the means through which He comes to us in the Eucharist. Without the Eucharist, we would have no eternal life. Without priests, we would have no Eucharist. Let's give thanks for our priests, and redouble our prayers that God will send us good and holy ones — manna from Heaven in our wandering exile. ~ Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman ©LPi
