Ministry Volunteer Opportunities

Did you ever feel called to give your time to the church, but then second-guessed yourself because you didn't feel equipped to do so? Often, when we look at our own abilities, we can only see our lack. Please know, God knows what's in our heart. He sees these insecurities and doubts yet doesn't let it stop Him from nudging us toward wanting to give of ourselves. Remember - God doesn't call the equipped—He equips the called!

Prayer for Vocations

O Lord, Good Shepherd, who inspires holy priests, plant in the hearts of Your faithful a fervent call to ministry. Kindle in them the courage to embrace the confessional's grace amid worldly distractions. Guide their steps toward the altar You have prepared, whether priesthood, diaconate, or consecrated life. Let Your Spirit fill them with zeal to shepherd Your flock, purity to mirror Your sacrifice, and humility to serve without seeking praise. May they, through their vocation, lead souls to Your mercy and find in eternal service their joy and lasting reward. Amen.

Tips and Etiquette

On August 15, we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a Holy Day of Obligation. While every Sunday is a Holy Day of Obligation, an addition of five annual Holy Days of Obligation deepen our faith by honoring key mysteries such as the Assumption - Mary's sinless ascent to Heaven. As with any Mass, dress modestly, arrive early, silence your cell phone, and participate fully.

Last week, I sat with a friend lamenting his endless pursuit of a bigger house, his voice heavy with exhaustion. This echoed today's Gospel, where a man seeks Jesus to divide an inheritance, prompting the Parable of the Rich Fool (Luke 12:16-21). The fool hoards his harvest, planning leisure, only to hear, "This night your life will be demanded of you" (Luke 12:20). His wealth, unshared, proves futile. This challenges us to ponder: What am I storing up? Jesus calls us to a richer treasure—faith in God's kingdom.

The Psalm today pleads, "Teach us to number our days that we may gain a heart of wisdom" (Psalm 90:12), a wisdom the fool lacked, clinging to possessions over purpose. In prayer, I've felt the pull to accumulate, yet the Spirit nudges me toward generosity. The rich man's error wasn't wealth but his self-reliance, blind to eternity's call. This parable invites us to detach, offering our abundance to others as Christ did.

In our material world, let us seek God's heart, not hoarded goods. May we use our resources to bless the poor, finding true wealth in love and service. Each Eucharist reminds us: earthly riches fade, but divine love endures. Let this truth guide us, transforming our lives into offerings of praise until we rest in God's eternal home.
