Tips and Etiquette

Children are a blessing at Mass, bringing vitality to our worship community. To foster reverence, parents can prepare kids by explaining the liturgy and setting gentle expectations. If babies cry or kids fidget, calmly step out to the vestibule or cry room until settled. Avoid snacks or toys that distract or make noise; instead, whisper explanations or hold hands to engage them. This approach honors the sacred space while teaching faith, as the Church welcomes families. A supportive word to a parent of little ones is always appreciated and welcome.

With patience, children learn to participate, enriching the Mass experience for all.

Prayer for Vocations

O Lord, our revealing Shepherd, You manifest Your light to all nations. Plant in our hearts a desire for vocations—priesthood, religious life, or marriage.

Give us courage to respond to Your epiphany with open spirits. Guide us to the paths You have prepared with enlightened hearts. Fill us with zeal to spread Your revelation, purity to reflect Your glory, and humility to witness Your baptismal grace. May we, through faithful response, answer Your call, lead others to Your truth, and find joy in serving You eternally. Amen.

Baptism of the Lord

This week, I watched a child gaze at a starlit sky, her wonder opening my eyes to hidden beauty. This echoed Epiphany's Gospel, where wise men follow a star to worship the child King, revealing God's light to all nations (Matthew 2:1-12). The Catechism teaches, "The Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God and Savior of the world" (CCC 528), a revelation calling us to adoration. That child's awe felt like God's invitation.

I recall my own moments of doubt, seeking signs, only to find them in baptismal waters. The Catechism adds, "Baptism is the principal place for the first and fundamental conversion" (CCC 1226), as in Luke's Gospel where heaven opens at Jesus' baptism (Luke 3:21-22). The dove and voice reminded me: renewal flows from divine affirmation. That starlit gaze taught me epiphanies lead to mission.

In our ordinary time, let us seek Christ's light. May prayer and sacraments renew us, guiding our journeys to eternal glory.

Share YOUR Faith

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

The bishops of the United States established the annual Collection for the Church in Latin America as a practical expression of unity and love for their brothers and sisters in Central and South America and the islands of the Caribbean. For more than 60 years, Catholics in the United States have answered the invitation to “share your faith” by supporting pastoral ministries that strengthen the Church in the present day and help it pass on the Gospel to future generations.

One of the most important ways that Catholics share our faith with future generations is by supporting the formation and seminary education of men who have answered God’s call to the priesthood or diaconate. In Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, 149 priestly seminarians and 69 permanent deacons at the São José Archdiocesan Seminary received support through the Collection for the Church in Latin America to help cover education tuition and spiritual retreat expenses, as well as the cost of food.

Your support for this special collection helps prepare these men for lives of serving others through their preaching and celebration of the sacraments.

For more information about how donations help the Church in Latin America, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Compartir nuestra Fe

Apoye la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina

Los obispos de los Estados Unidos establecieron la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina, que se realiza anualmente, como una expresión práctica de unidad y de amor por sus hermanos y hermanas en Centroamérica, Sudamérica y las islas del Caribe. Por más de 60 años, los católicos en los Estados Unidos han respondido a la invitación para “compartir su fe” al financiar ministerios pastorales que fortalecen hoy a la Iglesia y le ayudan a transmitir el Evangelio a las futuras generaciones.

Una de las formas más importantes en la que los católicos comparten nuestra fe con las futuras generaciones, es apoyando la formación y la educación de seminaristas quienes han respondido al llamado de Dios al sacerdocio o al diaconado. En Río de Janeiro, Brasil, en el Seminario arquidiocesano de San José, 149 seminaristas sacerdotales y 69 diáconos permanentes recibieron fondos a través de la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina para ayudarles a cubrir los costos de la matrícula educativa y del retiro espiritual, así como el costo de la alimentación.

El apoyo de ustedes a esta colecta especial ayuda a preparar a estos hombres para una vida de servicio a los demás mediante la prédica y la celebración de los sacramentos.

Para más información acerca de la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina, visiten www.usccb.org/latin-america.
